The Center for Family Resources Hosts Inaugural Bowling Tournament Fundraiser '10 Pin Challenge' Brings Together Community Teams to 'Build Hope One Pin at a Time'

Marietta, Ga. (June 30, 2009) – On Saturday, June 27, the Center for Family Resources hosted its first '10 Pin Challenge' Corporate/Adult Bowling Tournament Fundraiser. The event, held at Brunswick Zone Lanes located on Delk Road in Marietta, welcomed 20 teams from local businesses, civic groups, churches and neighborhood associations. Teams were comprised of six players and included team t-shirts, two games and shoes. Guests enjoyed food, prizes, 50/50 raffle and cash bar and helped CFR raise over $7,000!

Prizes were awarded first, second, third and last place with a prize also rewarding the best team name. Congratulations to our first place winner, The Repro Incredibowlers of Repro Products. Second place was awarded to the Clutch Finish Rollers of the Chatman, Knowles and Sigler families. Third Place was awarded to The Color Splitters of The Color Spot. An additional prize was awarded for 'Best Team Name' to Team Split Happens of Marietta Board of Lights and Water. A 'last but not least' prize was also awarded to Team Spare Me of Ayoub and Mansour, LLC.

Team sponsorships were available at the $250, $500 and $1,000 levels. Sponsors of the 2009 '10 Pin Challenge' included KingPin sponsors The Color Spot and Marietta Board of Lights and Water. Sponsors at the Strikes level included Clear Channel Outdoor, Elite Telecom Services, Georgia Power, Moore Colson, OCI Chemical and PBS&J. Sponsors at the Spares level include Ayoub & Mansour, LLC, Bank of North Georgia, Brock Clay, CH2M Hill, The Chatman, Knowles and Sigler families, The Home Depot, Liberty Strategies, NSPI, Repro Products, Roswell Street Baptist Church, Mr. and Mrs. Chris Saldi, Strategic Business Resources, Strategic Staffing Solutions and Sweet Southern Tee's.

"We were thrilled to bring together teams from across this community to support CFR in its first bowling fundraiser, Jeri Barr, CFR CEO said. It was a quick and easy for our supporters to bring together a group of their friends, colleagues or family to have fun and support the critical work we are doing at CFR each day. We are so grateful for their support. "

The second annual 10 Pin Challenge will take place on Saturday, June 26, 2010.

Since 1960, CFR has helped thousands of low-income families with employment, education, and housing services; leadership development programs; mentoring opportunities; and temporary financial and food assistance. Guided by organizational values of Family, Integrity, Results, Service and Teamwork, the staff at CFR is committed to breaking the cycle of poverty by helping families acquire the resources they need to become independent and self-sufficient.
